

Deborah Jaffe G.T.C. (Dip.)
Graphologist & Scientific Handwriting Analyst
Expert Witness – Law Society Checked

PERSONAL INTRODUCTION (C.V.)

To whom this may concern -

I have worked as a professional Graphologist and Scientific Handwriting Analyst for over twenty-four years.

I attained the G.T.C. Diploma from the Graphology Tutorial Centre after five years of formal intensive training, which covered an in-depth examination of at least 300 variants that can be recognised in script. My credentials have been checked and approved by the 'UK Register of Expert Witnesses'. Several references were provided to and accepted by The Law Society during 2003 and I am a regular advertiser in their directories under The Expert Witnesses section (The Law Society Gazette).

I am an experienced handwriting analyst and able to utilise this science for many causes and for a variety of matters which include Criminal, Civil and Single Joint Expert cases. Specialist areas of work include the examination of suspected forgeries, verifying the authenticity of signatures and/or regular script, typed literature, disputed documents, anonymous script, malicious notes and graffiti.

Graphological assessments are utilised for psychological profiles, character appraisals, recruitment purposes and anonymous authors.

My clientele is diverse and includes an extensive list of Solicitors, Banks and other major corporations. Court expertise, as an 'Expert Witness', has been provided abroad and on numerous occasions in the UK. I have received several references with respect to my ability to provide oral evidence in Court and copies of these statements are normally provided to a prospective client.

I am a conscientious, methodical and reliable analyst. My objective is that clients will receive an accurate analysis, which is relevant to their requirements. It is also my intention to provide a comprehensive report and an informative summary that is concise and clearly states the facts of a case.

As a Graphologist and Scientific Handwriting Analyst, I adhere to a strict code of ethics and every case is treated with the utmost respect and confidentiality.

Excellent references available upon request.

Thank you for your attention.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Deborah Jaffe
