Consultant Cardiothoracic Surgeon

Mr Neil Roberts is a consultant cardiothoracic surgeon practising in the NHS at Barts Heart Centre in the City of London. He also has a private practice based in Harley Street in London.

Mr Roberts is experienced in all aspects of adult cardiac surgery and has been a consultant cardiac surgeon since February 2011.

He is trained in medicolegal and expert witness report writing through courses with Bond Solon and is experienced in giving evidence in court and being cross examined.

He has also been the clinical governance lead in his department for the last 3 years, and therefore has extensive experience in incident reviews, complaint responses and negotiating the clinical governance systems within the NHS.

Mr Roberts accepts cases involving clinical negligence – breach of duty and causation – and personal injury – current condition and prognosis.

His specialist areas of expertise include:

- All aspects of adult cardiothoracic surgery
- Clinical governance, surgical safety standards, WHO checklist compliance
- Serious incidents and Datix incident investigations and process
- Consent issues
- Pre intervention decision making in cardiology and cardiac intervention – was the correct process followed, was the patient discussed in the appropriate MDT according to current best practice, were the international guidelines followed and alternatives discussed with the patient?

Instructions undertaken on behalf of claimant, defendant or as a Single Joint Expert.
