

Biography

Peter Rogers BSc (Hons) MSc CEng FIOA FRSA

Managing Director and Founder

Peter is a Fellow of the Institute of Acoustics and a Chartered Engineer and a Registered Expert Witness in the fields of Planning, Nuisance and Licensing. Peter has over 20 years' experience delivering noise and vibration solutions on a wide variety of projects, which spans a career that began in Local Authority moved into consultancy. With this unique insight he now specialises in Building Acoustics and Environmental Noise and Vibration control. He has worked as an expert in a numerous cases in the planning, licensing and nuisance arenas, and recently gave evidence to the House of Lords Committee as they reviewed the Licensing Act 2003. He regularly works within both Civil and Criminal Procedure rules and his style is to uses his expertise in acoustics to make the issue understandable. Peter is the Managing Director and founder of Sustainable Acoustics and remains an active engineer interested in ways to use acoustics to create a better future, and to find solutions to problems, within the context and with a good understanding of the UK legal system in relation to noise and vibration control.

Contact :

M: +44 7914 417917

E: progers@sustainableacoustics.co.uk