Dear Dr Sethi,

Please see my comments below.

Regards

Jon

'I found Dr Sethi to be very helpful in replying promptly to correspondence and answering any enquiries. Dr Sethi provided helpful and clear information and I will be keeping him in mind for any future assistance.'

Following the recent Government announcement staff will now be working from home until further notice.

We will continue to run as business as usual as much as we are able but we ask for your patience and support during this time.

If you need to speak to staff, can we please ask in the first instance that you email if able, otherwise, please call the normal number.
