

Lasting Powers of Attorney

Questionnaire

To be completed in conjunction with our Factsheet

Specialist services from the Tax and Estate Planning Department

1. The Discovery Process

IMPORTANT Please read this notice

The terms under which we provide legal services are strictly controlled in accordance with the guidance of our Regulator, the Solicitors Regulation Authority. These regulations are in place to protect you and to help us ensure the legal services that we provide are accurate.

Frequently we are asked to have an initial meeting with potential clients to establish whether:-

- the potential client wants to instruct us, and
- we have the relevant legal expertise, and
- the level of our fees is acceptable, and
- the members of our team are compatible with the potential client.

In all cases, there must be a clear understanding of the basis on which the first meeting is held and the extent of our responsibilities, whether or not you decide to instruct us.

In accordance with our regulatory requirements, we maintain a professional indemnity insurance policy. In order that you may be assured that our advice is covered by that policy, you will need to formally retain us, regardless of whether you decide to instruct us beyond the first meeting.

On the following page you will find our Retainer which should be read in conjunction with our terms and conditions.

Thank you for your attention to this.

2. Terms - The Discovery Process

We ask that you complete this before we meet.

There is no obligation to instruct us beyond the Initial Meeting, however if you do not, this meeting will be charged at a fixed fee of £150 plus VAT. Should you choose to instruct us in the preparation of Lasting Powers of Attorney, this fixed charge will not be made but the fees set out in our Factsheet will apply.

The Initial Meeting performs an important function of allowing you to determine whether you would like to retain us and for us to determine whether you qualify to be a client of this firm.

Therefore, whether or not we continue to act for you beyond your Initial Meeting, please read the following and sign below to acknowledge that:-

1. there is no obligation to engage Whitehead Monckton beyond the Initial Meeting,
2. if Whitehead Monckton incurs reasonable disbursements (such as Land Registry fees) during (and necessary to) the Initial Meeting you shall pay these whether or not you continue to instruct Whitehead Monckton,
3. you should not rely on the discussions in the Initial Meeting and any information you receive unless it is supported by written Legal Advice contained in a letter or other documents from Whitehead Monckton,
4. you acknowledge that you shall complete this questionnaire as fully as possible and to the best of your knowledge information and belief the information is correct,
5. For the purpose of the Initial Meeting you are engaging Whitehead Monckton as your Solicitors in accordance with the firm's Terms and Conditions.

What Next?

This questionnaire is a key stage in the Discovery Process for the Initial Meeting.

The questionnaire is deliberately comprehensive and we make no apologies for that. By giving us information about you to the level contained here, you are giving yourself the best opportunity of receiving the bespoke advice that your circumstances deserve.

It is our experience that having the completed questionnaire before the meeting will result in a productive Initial Meeting.

Please email a scanned copy of the completed questionnaire to enquiries@whitehead-monckton.co.uk

Alternatively please send it to us by facsimile.

Thank you.

The Initial Meeting
